David Zhang Founder turned Head of Product

david.zhang.human@gmail.com · x.com/dzhng · github.com/dzhng

I build what developers actually want.

Two-time founder with an exit. I see what developers want before they ask, and ship it myself as an engineer.

Product intuition for developers, proven by a founder track record.

Co-founder & CTO, Amity Messaging app for frontline workers; exited for millions.

WHY ME

Developers share what I build because I build what they want.

01 Product intuition for developers

660K views for one demo; 523K and 456K for single launches.

02 Shipping speed

I build what I spec: deep-research hit 8.4K stars in 6 days, jevgrep 1.8K in 2 days.

03 Products developers adopt

Built to be used and shared: 19.8K, 3.0K and 1.4K stars; 2M+ views.

04 Engineer-level depth

Former co-founder & CTO. I go deep with any eng team and can ship the fixes myself.
